

WORSHIP SPOTLIGHT

Why do we begin the service with the invocation of the Trinity?

The pastor proclaims that we are gathered to worship: “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” This invocation makes it clear, from the outset, who it is that we are worshipping and who it is that makes our worship possible.

God’s Triune name is frequently spoken throughout the service because Father, Son, and Spirit are all active in our worship. Theologian James B. Torrance has described Christian worship as “our participation through the Spirit in the Son’s communion with the Father.” God has invited us to share in the love, joy, and fellowship that Father, Son, and Spirit have experienced for all eternity.

These are also the same words spoken at Holy Baptism. Thus, at the beginning of the service, we are being reminded of our true identity. God has put his name upon us. He has adopted us into his family as His beloved children. We are reminded that in baptism we have “put on Christ” (Gal. 3:27) and it is only in Christ, by the power of the Spirit, that we are able to enter into the Father’s presence.

The Christian’s appropriate response to all this is to proclaim that it is indeed true and we are glad for it! The Hebrew word used to express that sentiment is: “Amen!”
